

DEATH IS NOTHING AT ALL

Death is nothing at all.

I have only slipped away into the next room.

I am I, and you are you.

Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by my own familiar name.

Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.

Put no difference in your tone.

Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.

Let it be spoken without effort, without the trace of a shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant.

It is the same as it ever was.

There is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?

I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner.

All is well.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

ALL ABOUT WARWICK

POEM: A LIFE WELL - LIVED

A life well-lived is a precious gift of hope and strength and grace from someone who has made our world a brighter, better place.

It is filled with moments, sweet and sad with smiles and with tears, with friendships formed and good times shared and laughter through the years.

*A life well-lived is a legacy of joy and pride and pleasure, a loving, lasting memory
our grateful hearts will treasure.*

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father, which art in heaven hallowed be thy name Thy kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.*
